Beverly was baptized and confirmed in the Congregational Church of Campbell, Nebraska. Beverly received her elementary education at the Presley School until her family moved into Campbell where she continued her schooling at Campbell Public Schools. She graduated from Campbell High School in 1945. She worked at Ingleside in Hastings, Nebraska and in Omaha, Nebraska at a Bakery. She then returned to Campbell and worked at the telephone office as a switchboard operator and at the theatre in Campbell. Beverly was united in marriage with Dell R. Rutt on December 7, 1957 at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church, Campbell, Nebraska. They first lived southwest of Upland and then moved to the farm west of Campbell where they farmed and raised Registered Herefords. They were blessed with three sons, Kyle, Keri and Kell. She became a member of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Campbell after marriage. She was on various committees at church, taught Sunday School, and member of the Presbyterian Women at church. She served on the election board and was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 169 of Campbell. She was a member of the Hereford Women of Nebraska and helped Dell with their numerous Hereford sales. Beverly loved each of her grandchildren. She loved spending time with them and watching them grow.

Left to treasure her memories are her family; Kyle Rutt, Campbell, Nebraska, Keri (Lora) Rutt, Upland, Nebraska, Kell (Melanie) Rutt, Campbell, Nebraska, (8) Grandchildren: Kelsey, MaKayla, Quin, Rachel, Sarah, Emma, Emily and Kallie Rutt.
